

The Ian Potter Childrens WILD PLAY Garden Bench Donation

The Ian Potter Children's WILD PLAY Garden is a state-of-the-art nature play space designed to engage the five senses, and help to reconnect children to nature. Complete with water, natural vegetation and soaring heights, children have the chance to get lost in the wonderment of nature.

Your donation to a bench in The Garden will create a special place for you and fellow park users to sit and enjoy this incredible space.

There are a number of different locations available, please see the attached maps for availability.

Living Legacy benches in The Ian Potter Children's WILD PLAY Garden are available for a donation of $15,000 and are for a period of 10 years.

Your donation package will include:

- choice of bench from availability
- plaque affixed to the bench with wording in accordance with our Bench Plaque Policy
- dedication certificate and photos
- subscription to our eNewsletter
- recognition on our website (optional)
- 100% tax deductibility

At the completion of the 10 year period you will be given the first option to renew for a further donation. If you choose not to renew the bench will be made available for a new dedication.

Centennial Parklands Foundation is an independent charitable organisation listed on the Register of Environmental Organisations under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 and all donations over $2 are tax deductible.
